Key verse -REVELATION 1:8

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.”

Α Ω

Revelation looks forward to the triumph to come at the return of Christ, when he will deliver the righteous who are suffering and judge the wicked for their deeds.

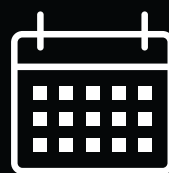

Revelation was written for churches under the shadow of imperial persecution. They needed encouragement to keep from despair and not abandon faith, and warning to be alert to the dangers of external attack and internal apostasy.

Though many questions remain about the exact nature of John’s prophecy concerning the second coming, one thing is sure: God wins and Jesus reigns.

In the NT, revelation describes an unveiling. In all its uses, “revelation” refers to something or someone, once hidden, becoming visible. What this book reveals or unveils is Jesus Christ in glory.
